LATE-NIGHT HAPPY HOURS TO SATISFY AND SATIATE

It's late, you're out with your friends, and the conversation goes, "Let's go somewhere!" "Ok where?" "I'm hungry!" "Me too, but where should we go?"

The conundrum of finding an interesting late-night happy hour is not a new one. Boring well drinks, wings and fries menus have plagued the late hours for years. Luckily San Diego bars and restaurants have heard the call for the exciting and are rolling out interesting and inventive late happy hours to treat night owls.

Here are a few not-so-average late-night happy hour locations to add to the lineup.

FARMER'S BOTTEGA

Late night goodies come out for one special night here, with a Tuesday all-night happy hour. Hot on the list are $6 specialty cocktails with the sorta-healthy, definitely unique Kombucha Mojito or Kombucha Mule. Also available are $5 drinks including any draft beer, Beermosa, Screwdriver, sangria, house wines, Mimosas and half-off all appetizers.
