

NATIONAL DRINK WINE DAY

National Drink Wine Day is right around the corner on February 18th! Spend the day sipping vino with your crew, and in the meantime, enjoy some of San Diego's most coveted dining experiences. Save the date for this momentous occasion and notify your fellow wine-o's, because sips about to go down!

Everything happens for a Riesling, so wine not treat yourself to an elegant evening at Osetra

Seafood & Steaks! Nestled in San Diego's swanky Gaslamp District, this lively location exudes sophistication, and with 24 years under its belt as a bonafide San Diego staple, this local hot-spot brims with a diversity of wines. Split a small or large Chilled Platter with your buds, and enjoy a splendid array of Alaskan King Crab, ½ Maine Lobster, Baja California Shrimp, Daily Oysters, New Zealand Green Lipped Mussels, Manila Clams and Maryland Scallops. Pair this with a bottle of S.A. Prum Riesling, characterized by a bouquet of delicately sweet tasting notes, glazed by honey and sweet-tart tangerine flavors.

Do you believe in love at first sight? Because you had me at Merlot! Farmer's Bottega in Mission Hills embodies all that wine connoisseurs and farm-to-fork enthusiasts seek in a culinary haven. Savor a tender Buffalo Filet, dressed in herb rub, swiss chard, roasted Maui thyme and petite Syrah reduction, accompanied by a serving of garlic mashed potatoes. Wash it all down with Rutherford Hill Merlot, which graces the palate with intense aromas of raspberry, plum and a hint of dried cherry, matched with concentrated complexities of red fruit, plush tannins, a hint of cocoa, caramel and dried currants.

Stop and smell the rosé at Waterbar in Pacific Beach, and treat yourself to one of their specialty seafood dishes matched with spectacular ocean views. Choose from their extensive wine list and indulge in one of their delectable seafood dishes, such as flavorsome Sea Bass, bathed in smoked tomato broth, ancho chile and onion marmalade, and accompanied by corn dumplings. Go pink and pair this with le Grand Courtaige Rosé, packed with fresh and fruity aromas of young strawberry, raspberry, lilac and violets.

Life is bottle-full, so why not spend it enjoying a solid glass of white wine paired with some of the city's best fish tacos! Pacific Beach Fish Shop knows their fish, so grab a seat on their expansive patio and savor a build-your-own taco, loaded with your choice of fish, marinated in your favorite seasoning and complemented by shredded cabbage, pico de gallo, mixed cheeses and house cilantro white sauce. Pair your selection with Benziger Chardonnay, brimming with flavors of apple, pear, citrus and ripe apricot, infused with subtle creamy hints of butter and meringue. With a bounty of wine-centric eateries around the city, it can be hard to narrow down the count for where to spend your National Drink Wine Day, so be sure to hit up these happening hot-spots around the city!
